В РФ несколько проживает несколько миллионов украинцев, и почти все они работают на российские компании. Что предлагаете делать с этими предателями: просто пристрелить, или сначала запытать, а потом пристрелить? Достаточно ли им будет забыть русский язык, чтобы обойтись кровью малых?

Winston Churchill said: "A nation that forgets its past nas no future..."

The memorial plaque to colonel of the Russian Imperial Army, a Red Army general, professor of the Soviet General Staff Academy and Hero of the Soviet Union Dmitry Mikhaylovich Karbyshev was dismantled in Kiev.

In during the Russo-Japanese War he was at the Battle of Mukden and decorated for bravery. Karbyshev was participated in the construction of fortifications for the Brest Fortress in 1911. In during World War I, he was decorated with the Order of St. Anne for bravery and participated in the Brusilov Offensive.

In August 1941, Karbyshev while unconscious was captured by the Nazis. He was held at a succession of concentration camps, including Hammelburg, Flossenbürg, Majdanek, Auschwitz, Sachsenhausen and, in February 1945, Mauthausen.

On the night of 17 February 1945, he was one of 500 prisoners undressed, doused with cold water and left to expire in the frost.

According to the literary testimony of a camp survivor, Karbyshev stayed upright facing his executioners and shouted encouragements to his fellow prisoners.

A white-marble monument of Karbyshev stands at the Mauthausen concentration camp.

The memory of the past is not necessary for the present Ukraine. Today dismantled the memorial plaque, what will destroy tomorrow? The Motherland Monument or the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier?

Aren't you ashamed for this, Mr. Vitali Klitschko?

Dr. Wladimir Klitschko, What would your grandfather and father say if they were alive?

Unfortunately, the dead heroes can't rise from the grave and fight back.

A nation that does not remember its history cannot comprehend the essence and significance of important life truth and has no future.
