You are russian, what's your idea about killing russian people in easth of ukraine in these years.
What's your idea about expansion of NATO to the easth where they can strike Moscow with atomic missile at less than 4 minute.
About thirty years ago russia and ukraine were two territory of soviet with economical, cultural, historical, ties. If they had chosen china way in that time now they are one the five biggest economy in the world. But now they are fighting with each other while USA sell more oil and gas to European countries.
